

Investing for Success

Under this agreement for 2019

MANLY WEST STATE SCHOOL will receive

$146, 892*

This funding will be used to

- Develop expertise in the teaching of reading across Australian Curriculum (AC) learning areas;
- Support the growth of all students in reading through age-appropriate, differentiated practices;
- Enhance teaching and learning through feedback linked to learning intentions and success criteria.

Our initiatives include

- Develop expert teaching of reading through peer coaching using the 7 Steps to Effective Feedback Model (James Nottingham) which is coordinated by a pedagogical coach;
- Support improved teaching practice and student growth through cycles of inquiry and data analysis coordinated by the School Improvement Team (SIT) - Principal, D/Principal, STL&N, SEP teacher, pedagogical and data coaches (Sharratt: Putting Faces on the Data);
- Differentiate through the planning and teaching of reading in the Reading to Learn (R2L) cycle to support individual student growth (Rose: Reading to Learn, Hattie: Visible Learning);
- Purchase reading resources to facilitate home reading, independent reading, access to non-fiction texts and on-going reading comprehension strategy implementation (Sheena Cameron).
- Embed age-appropriate teaching and learning opportunities across year levels.

Our school will improve student outcomes through
